Woman's Page

Little Things That Bring Big Changes in the Styles-Charming Dance Frocks for Young Girls-Selvages of Silk and Satin Still Left Unhemmed-Black and White Ever Popular-To Properly Care for Palms-Fish As a Summer Dish-Four Ways to Prepare Fish.

PARTI-COLORED TULLE FROCKS

Some charming dance frocks for young girls are made of tulle of various colors or shades of the same color. The skirts are made with one width of tulle in, for instance, deep rse, next to a width of gray tulle, and that is next to one of light pink. Then the tulle is laid in big pleats or else is gathered full about the waist, and the result desired is obtained.

Of course, in the folds and gathers, tulle of one shade overlaps that of another, producing very interesting

A frock of the colors described showed the tulle bound at the bottom with a very narrow blas strip flowered silk in white and rose and

SELVAGES STILL USED.

When dressmakers first began to leave "raw edges" (in reality, unhemmed selvages) there was a good deal of mild excitement among women who were interested in clothes. But now the selvage idea is an old one, and has proved itself one worth adopting permanently.

Selvages of silk and satin are still left unhemmed, where it is found more convenient to do this, and raw edges of tulle and net are even more In anything that sags as fine tulle does this method is especially advantageous, for when the tulle sags, if it is unhemmed, it can be trimmed with a sharp pair of scissors to its original evenness

Modern women insist on Cottolene

Because it is one of the purest of pure food products. Because they know that

Cottolene

ity or purity or for producing foods that are wholesome, digestible and delicious Use one-third less of Cottolene than of ordinary cooking fat. Use Cottolene for all your shortening, frying and cake-making. Arrange with your grocer to deliver your supply regularly. Write to our General Offices, Chicago, for a free copy of our real cook book, "HOME HELPS."

THE KE FAIRBANK TORMEY

"Cottolene maker good cooking better"

Denver$22.50

Omahe 40.00

Kansas City 40.00 St. Paul 53.85

Chicago 56.50

St. Louis ----- 51.20

Memphis 59.85

Diverse Routes

date of sale.

FRANK FOUTS.

General Agent.

BLACK AND WHITE.

Women do not seem to tire of the black and white combinations in Some of the most interestng of the new belts are of black and One belt is formed of bands of black patent leather separated with ords of white silk. Another is made up of two-inch strips of black and white silk alternating with each other Then there are black belts piped at he edges with black, and plaid black nd white belts made on the bias and on the straight. Perhaps these belts are most effective when they are worn with skirts and blouses

CARING FOR PALMS.

Palms require regular watering with special care not to overwater. s better with most palms to keep hem a little dry than too wet. Where a pot is in a jardiniere especial care must be exercised not to have them

While small, wash the foliage oc asionally with soap suds made from good soap. Immediately follow with thorough rinsing. When too large or this spray the tops frequently with

Browning at the tips usually comes rom trouble at the roots: first, overwatering; second, worms on the roots; third, lack of plant food. The first s the trouble in nearly every case The worm that gave the trouble is not the ordinary earth worm, but a little white harmless looking creature that emerges into the air as a small fly

Dissolve a piece of quicklime as big as a teacup in three gallons of wa-After it is through sputtering and the milky mixture has cleared, pour off the clear part and soak your soil with it. Do not dilute, for the soaking should be thorough.

To provide plant food, stir small quantities of bone meal and wood ashes into the surface, or in place of ordinary watering occasionally use ammonia water (a teaspoonful of ammonia to a quart of water.) Trim off the brown tips, as they will never recov-

If the leaves turn yellow, look for scale on the under side and be sure you are not over-watering. Wash the scale off or spray with kerosene emulsion or whale-oil soap, or some nicotine preparation.

FISH AS A SUMMER DISH. Canned fish offers many attractive ossibilities for summer dishes; it is available in any locality, and affords a welcome change in the summer me-Some forms of canned fish, as salmon and sardines, may be served by merely removing from the can; little more labor and no fire is required to prepare a salad from such fish; while hot canned fish foods need but Fish Soup. three of butter, adding three cups of milk and stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper, then add a small can of salmon. Press through Scalloped Fish and Oysters. Use two cups each of flaked codfish, canned oysters, and white sauce. Arrange in alternate layers in a bakingdish, cover with a cup of buttered crumbs and bake until brown.

Chicken and Tuna Salad. Tuna is less expensive than chicken and blends nicely with it. Mix one can of tuna with a cup of diced chicken, one tablespoon of diced pimentos and two tablespoons of chopped olives or cucumbers or celery according to the season. Use mayonnaise dressing and serve on lettuce.

Sardine Sandwiches.

Bone and flake a can of sardines with a fork. Mix with a tablespoon each of lemon juice and chopped pi-mentos and spread between thin slices of buttered white bread.-Woman's World for June.

JOHN T. HODSON IS DEAD IN SALT LAKE

Salt Lake, May 28 .- John T. Hodon, prominent mine promoter with large interests in Utah, Nevada and June 2, 5, 9, 12, 16, 19, 23,

MOUNTAIN TROUT EVERY DAY

Stopovers

Eccles Building.

CITY TICKET OFFICE.

DINING CAR

Final limit, October 31.

26, 30.

Round Trip Summer Excursion Rates

DENVER & RIO GRANDE

"The Route of The Scenic Limited"

San Francisco$35.00 San Francisco via Los Angeles..... 35.00

San Francisco via Portland 53.50

Baggage checked from Residence to Destination.

Telephone 634.

On sale daily. Good returning three months from

May 29;

Idaho, died shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the L. D. S. hos pital of injuries received Monday evening when he was struck by a street car on Main street. Mr. Hodson never regained consciousness and as a final resort the attending physicians operated Wednesday to remove a blood clot from his head, but to no avail.

The accident in which Mr. Hodson received the injuries which resulted in his death occurred on Main street in front of the Kearns building. company with J. M. Wheeler, also a mining man and a close associate, he was crossing Main street and stopped between the east and west car tracks to allow a north-bound car to pass. As he did so he was struck by a southbound car and thrown heavily to the pavement. He received a fractured skull and concussion of the brain re-

Mr. Hodson was born July 28, 1870, at Coalville, Utah, the son of William and Isabella Williamson Hodson He was educated in the schools of Coalville and later entered the employ of the Co-operative Mercantile institution in Coalville in the capacity of book keeper and salesman. in this capacity and at the same time engaged in a small way in the mining business. He was married to Cora A Smith in Coalville and in 1892 came to Salt Lake, where he has since

Here he engaged actively in the mining business and as the discoverer of the Nevada Hills claim in Nevada, he organized the company which be gan to operate that mine. He was one of the organizers of the Bowers mine in the Tintic district and in addition to holding heavy interests in the Alta and Cottonwood districts he organized many mining companies in Nevada and Idaho. He was asso clated with M. R. Evans of Salt Lake and Joseph Scowcroft of Ogden. Mr. Hodson was also one of the organizers of the Nevada Blossom Land compa-ny, in which many Salt Lake business men and capitalists are interested.

Surviving him are his widow and the following children: Mrs. William Connors, Marie Hodson, Louise Hodson, John Alma Hodson and Paul Hodson, all of Salt Lake. He is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: Edward E. Hodson of Salt Lake, Ben F. Hodson of Kamas, Mrs. William H. Reed of Plain City, Mrs J. A. Pack of Kamas, Mrs. Sarah J Carruth of Blackfoot, Idaho, Mrs Mary I. Sheppard and Mrs. J. E. White, both of Kamas, Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of reckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it falls.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and re-move them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckes vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee. a short period of "firing," being al--Advertisement.

> Lagoon Opening Dance, Saturday Evening, May 29th. Military Band Concerts every Sunday afternoon and evening. Fare 25c valued at more than $1,000,000, the former Princess de Chimay, who was Clara Ward of Detroit, Mich., is bequeathed only $1000, it was learned today, by the will of her mother, Mrs. Catherine L. Ward-Morrow of Lon-

FORMER PRINCESS

The will, filed here yesterday for probate, disposes of the estate to varlous relatives, and the only mention in it of the former princess is a pro-vision for $1000 "equalization money" in a codicil. The legal residence of the family has been in Chicago, and the fortune left the former princess by her father, E. B. Ward, a millionaire shipowner of Detroit, has been held in trust for her here. Mrs. Mor-row and her daughter, however, spent most of their time abroad.

Acquaintances of Mme. Ricciardi, as the former princess is now known, said today that she was living in

FIVE MEXICANS TO MEET DEATH

Phoenix, Ariz., May 27.-By a vote of 9 to 4, the Arizona state senate declined tonight Governor George W. P. Hunt's request to memorialize the state board of pardons and paroles to reprieve the five Mexicans condemned to die tomorrow at the Florence peni

The vote was the senate's answer to numerous pleas for mercy, one of which was made by William Jennings secretary of state, on the ground that the executions might ad-

OLD-FASHIONED

SALT-RISING BREAD

Get a loaf of this delicious bread from your grocer-10c a loaf.

The Hess Bakery Bakers of Home Delight Bread.

versely affect American interests in Secretary Bryan acted, according to report, at the request of General Frauing a resolution reiterating approval of the course taken by the board of Pittsburg, Pa., May 28.-Blast furnace operation in the Pittsburg dis-trict was increased today when fur-No. 2 of the Carrie plant at Rankin was blown in, the first time n two years.

Seven of the group are now in operation while at the Edgar Thompson, nearby, nine of the thirteen furnaces

SOUTHERN PACIFIC

WHO PAYS?

Story No. 5

Unto Herself Alone By EDWIN BLISS Copyright, 1915, by Pathe Exchange, Inc. All moving picture rights and all foreign copyrights strictly reserved. (CONTINUED FROM YESTERDAY.) you for the chance to let me help -help in any way I can.

moved swiftly toward his motor to identify his terror in the crowd and, not finding it, sought tempo- he said.

shrink away afraid

He glanced warily up and down the helping you would do so much the narrow, hiving street as he to help me." The vehemence of his passion subsided as he pleading having effect. His voice car. It was as though he had tried lowered and he came a step closer. "We may not be together," said. "We may be very far rary refuge in the machine. Always apart. Once before we were far apart, you remember, and you said he was craning his head from side to me then that you knew it was to side with the quick, darting hard, that oftentimes it seemed unmovements of a frightened bird, fair but that if we loved one anAnd finally, with a weary sigh of relief, he sank back against the cushions of the car, relief lightening his face. His hand groped for the speaking tube and after a would help so much. Don't you the speaking tube and after a would help so much. Don't you moment's hesitation he directed the remember that, little girl? Well, I chauffeur to the Halstead residence.

At the curb he leaped out lightly.

At the by moved in an exclamation woman's. But I tried, Esther, I of relief and then the haunted extried. And now I ask you, I beg pression suddenly hurled across his you to fight with me—shoulder to face, transfiguring it. For a limousine slowly moved toward him, the face at the glass causing him to She felt the soul of her going out

She felt the soul of her going out to this man who seemed, by his Alica look at the man, then very voice to set astirring every slowly descended from the car and chord in her being. She swayed stood before him. He opened his slightly toward him. Fixedly she stared. Stared as though at an inanimate object instead of the man she was slowly driving insane with her torture.

"Always, Always, Alica Haunted Her Faithless Lover."

on the walk below. The butler deferentially opened the door, his face expressing the perfect mixture of complacency and deference alter the fruition of his happiness. ways to be found upon the ideal servant's countenance. Something very like surprise crossed his face as he saw who waited then he quickly closed the door, almost slammed it in the man's face. Felix Lynn's shoulders slumped had last hissed at him the epithet —"thief." Like a haunted, hunted of the man made her stop. He held It was only a scant two hours out his arms to her, not arms that later that he was halled by a little. thing fluttered within her, some-thing fluttered within her, some-thing she had thought long since captain had told him wished to She would have run but straint was shattered and the suffering, torn and lacerated soul of had the man stood before her, unabashed at its nakedness, only ask-ing the balm of forgiveness.

"No, not even forgiveness, Esther," he pleaded brokenly. "I only wish the chance to try and I have sinned, Esther, but, God knows, I have paid, am paying and shall pay until the memory of that sin is wiped away from all our minds. From our hearts it can never go. I love you—but we will not speak of that. I only comfort. And it will make me strong. God knows, I have paid, am payfort. And it will make me strong. I don't wish the strength for my-seif. I only want it that I may help you. I know you, Esther. I know that the memory of our love slonately bitter cry of Felix Lynn cannot be erased from such a soul as yours. I know that I have turned that beautiful thing into a wound that hurts. And I only ask cisco Villa, and the senate, in adopt pardons and paroles, declared that the suggestions of the secretary of state and the requests of Villa and of General Hunt were 'not in accord with either the spirit or the letter of This resolution was forwarded to the board of pardons and paroles, which met at Florence tonight.

The house of representatives was not in session when Governor Hunt sent in his message requesting a memorial for mercy to the board of pardons and paroles. It will not meet un-

Read the Classified Ads.

Read the Classified Ads.

til tomorrow.

mouth as though to speak but the hand reached up in half surrender, cold, expressionless face of the girl It was no use fighting. She loved turned. The light that had flamed high in her eyes died even as she turned them upon him. For, in the He turned quickly away and, with a shrug of the shoulders moved up to the steps, pressing the bell rapidly, his very back indicatturning, her eyes had encountered as to form an impenetrable barrier.

Esther shrank as he would have renewed his plea, for he was fight-ing for his very life now. He turned helplessly away. He did not seem again as he half turned. He do mind the eyes that followed him as he entered his car and ordered the eyes of the woman who waited below. For months now she had appeared always herely him. waited below. For months now she had appeared always beside him, more. Some great change was going at him from those accusing eyes, and never a word—never a word from those lips that had last hissed at him the epithet. He did not care any more. Some great change was going on within him, some change he could not analyze. He only wished to be away—away from the woman who haunted him with those eyes of accusation. of accusation.

He found his cabin, curtly direct-beast he looked toward the gardens, then, in some swift impulse, as his eyes caught a glimpse of Esther seated on a bench there, he moved hurriedly in her direction. She shrank away as she saw who had caused the quick crunch of gravel, but something on the face of the man made her stop. He held out his arms to her not arms that would embrace, but arms that puffing tug that had been trying to pleaded for help, a little comfort, overhaul them the half hour gone. At the top of the landing stage he walted for the passenger the tugboard.

dead. She would have run but there was that upon Felix Lynn's face which deterred her, glued her feet where she stood.

For a moment he did not speak, could not speak, then all the flood-gates were loosened, all the restraint was shattered and the sufficient form. She the sufficient was shattered and the sufficient form the laughing girl who are the sufficient form the laughing girl who Knight from the laughing girl who had come to the yacht another eve-

He had heard something of the scandal and had wondered whether it had anything to do with Lynn's altered manner. And now he won-dered whether he should not detain the girl who moved so slowly, so re-morselessly across the deck toward the cabin stairs. He started for-impulse drawing him out of range of the sight. For a long time the eyes of the pair held, then the pasover the water.

(CONTINUED TOMORROW.)

See this story, "Who Pays," in pictures, at the Isis every Tuesday and Wednesday.

PITTSBURG STARTS

Washington, May 28.-Application of the Southern Pacific railroad and the Associated Oil company, under the Panama canal act, to continue op-islands or to Alaskan ports would not be in violation of the law.

RICHARDSON HELD UNDER BOND. Evanston, Wyo., May 27.-Upon determination of whether C. O. Rich ardson of Springvalley was shooting at James Anderson or at Anderson's horse, when he shot the latter, de pends whether Richardson will prosecuted for attempt to murder or merely for malicious destruction of Richardson and Anderson quarreled over a debt for labor, and Richardson brought a gun into action, shooting a horse which Anderson was driving. Anderson charges that Richardson fired at him, and has sworn to a complaint charging assault with intent to kill. Friends of Rich ardson aver that he was shooting at the horse. Richardson has given bail of $1000 for appearance for prelimnary examination.

DEVELOPING OIL WELLS.

Casper, Wyo., May 27.- The Midwest Refining company, which oper-ates here the second largest oil re-eration of a fleet of oil steamers from field, and has brought in a number of Monterey, Gaviota and Port Costa, good wells. The freight rate from California, to points in Oregon and the Big Horn field to the refinery Washington, was denied today by the here is prohibitive, and it is for this Interstate Commerce commission. The reason that the smaller refinery is to commission held, however, that opera- be built. The Grass Creek oil is of tion of those ships to the Hawaiian light gravity, and contains an unusual per cent of gasoline, and the new refinery will be especially equipped for the extraction of gasoline. It will be located on the Burlington, at some point between Thermopolis and Wor-

ALONG THE ROW. Out of the Scrap.

One hundred million people here Still eat and wear out clothes, Some of them purchase auto cars-And take in theater shows They all buy hats and shoes and gloves. Their wives still shop at stores For folks all want things just the same Despite the foreign wars.

And why in blazes should a war In Germany and France Prevent a local merchant here From advertising pants? Or anything that people want? Gee whiz! It does seem queer, When bloomin' war is over there finery in Wyoming, will build a small- Brace up. Brace up. Catch on. Get er refinery in the Blg Horn basin, wise-where it is developing the Grass Creek NOW is the time to advertise.

And peace and plenty's here.

Protect Hourself! . Ask For Against

Substitutes HORLICK'S Get the Well-Known

THE ORIGINAL MALTED MILK

Made in the largest, best equipped and sanitary Malted Milk plant in the world

Wedo not make "milk products"-Skim Milk, Condensed Milk, etc. But only HORLICK'S

THE ORIGINAL MALTED MILK Made from clean, full-cream milk and the extract of select malted grain, reduced to powder form, soluble in water. Best Food-Drink for All Ages.

Used for over a Quarter Century Unless you say "HORL 3175" you may get a Substitute. Take a Package Home for Decoration Day Order Now and Save Delay. Splendid assortment of all Cut Flowers and Plants ready for Prompt de ivery.

PHONE 906. MRS. J. J. VAN DER SCHUIT and VAN HOLST FLORAL CO. 740 23TH STREET.

T DEDEN UTAH YOU NEVER KNOW WHEN fire may occur at your home or burglars break in. It is best to be protected at all We have Safe Deposit Boxes to rent in our Fire and Burglar Proof Vault for $2.00 and up per year.